Satsuma Vase "mt. Fuji And Cherry Blossoms", Attributed To Hayakawa, Kyoto C. 1890

650 EUR

Signature : Satsuma

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A well-preserved and finely painted Satsuma vase from the Kyoto region, attributed to the workshop of Hayakawa, dating to the late Meiji period. The baluster-form body features a panoramic landscape with Mount Fuji, along with a genre scene of women and children beneath blooming cherry trees. The shoulder is bordered with textile-style brocade, and the foot with geometric patterns.

Executed in polychrome enamels and gold, the decoration exemplifies Hayakawa's refined Kyoto export style. The ivory crackle glaze is typical of high-end Satsuma. The base bears the Shimazu crest and a partially blackened cartouche -- a known practice for obscuring signatures prior to
