Description

A magnificent two-part Roman trumeau cabinet crafted in solid walnut and veneered with richly figured burl wood, enhanced by shaped profiles, architectural detailing, and fine inlaid decoration. The lower section features a serpentine front with three tiers of drawers and a slant-front writing desk revealing an interior fitted with curved drawers and open compartments, all elegantly veneered.The upper section opens with mirrored, arched doors and is surmounted by a boldly shaped pediment. Inside, a theatrical architectural arrangement evokes a baroque loggia, with engaged columns, arched niches, and mirrored back panels creating depth and perspective. The central crest features an oval marquetry medallion depicting a putto, framed by carved rocaille ornamentation.Gilt bronze mounts enrich the top
