Description

Rare double-sided religious diptych - Saint Nicholas of Tolentino & Virgin and Child - Oil on copper, 17th century, silver mount. A precious and rare work from the 17th century, painted in oil on a thin copper plate on both sides, depicting two major figures of the Christian tradition, in a miniature format (7 x 6 cm) ideal for private devotion. Front: Saint Nicholas of Tolentino, recognizable by his black attire decorated with golden stars, holding a cross and a dish with a bird - classic attributes of the Augustinian wonderworking saint, famous for his visions and miracles. Back: Virgin and Child, richly dressed, haloed, painted in a Byzantine style with oriental accents. Careful detail, gentle expressions and blessing gestures. The whole is mounted in a delicate silver frame, with original hanging ring.
