Description

A rare Royal Worcester porcelain figurine dated 1930, depicting a dancing woman in Spanish style, captured mid-movement while holding castanets in both hands. She is dressed in a dark lustre gown with pearlescent effect, a seldom-seen and highly desirable version. The figure is finely modelled with expressive pose, elegant silhouette, and attention to detail, all typical of Worcester's refined production of the period. Her dynamic balance and rhythm evoke the atmosphere of performance and movement.
