Description

Portrait of a man with a ruff, by Jean Perret (1910-2003). Oil on panel signed in the lower right corner. The subject is represented in three-quarters, with a serious expression and a deep gaze. His face is highlighted by a clever play of color: salmon red in the background, white in the ruff, blue in the coat. Beautiful proportions, interesting pictorial technique, very decorative. Jean Perret (1910-2003), Lyon school, president of the jury of the Société Lyonnaise des Beaux-arts. In very good condition. Another portrait by the same artist for sale in my gallery. Free shipping for mainland France. Contact by email preferred. I remain at your disposal for further information or additional photos.
