Description

Sculpted in 18-carat yellow gold, this ring from Maison Boucheron demonstrates the sculptural elegance characteristic of French fine jewelry creations: at once virtuoso, historic and profoundly contemporary. Inspired by the art of passementerie, it translates its effects of texture and movement with exceptional goldsmith mastery. The volumes fold and intersect, giving the material an astonishing sensation of suppleness. Work circa 1980. Signed and numbered.Weight: 12.3g
