Persian art. Art inspired by the miniatures of the Tabriz school, then the capital of the Persian Empire. The fringes are clean and in good condition, they finish this very high quality carpet. Kork wool is the softest wool, taken from under the belly and neck of lambs. This carpet dates from the 1980s. Piece in very good condition, showing very slight wear. Tabriz (Azerbaijani: Təbriz/ تَبْرِيز, formerly Tauris), is the capital of the province of East Azerbaijan, in the northwest of Iran (Iranian Azerbaijan). It is located on the course of the Talkheh River (also called Aji-Chai), near Lake Urmia, close to the borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Armenia. Tabriz is the gateway to Persia from north to west, Tabriz carpets have an extreme importance in the quality of Persian carpets and a wonderful international reputation. Tabriz are among the most prized carpets in the world, their work is always very fine and durable over time. This rug has been professionally and ecologically cleaned.
