

2 Liturgical Stoles

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 140 cm

Width : 15 cm

Description

Pair of antique embroidered liturgical stoles - Silk, floral ornament - 19th / early 20th century Pair of antique Catholic liturgical stoles, richly decorated and intended for priestly use.

These textile pieces are made of damask silk with gold braid borders and finished with metallic fringes. Each stole is decorated with a hand-embroidered floral motif, with great finesse and strong Marian symbolism.

Description Details of the two stoles: 1. Stole with white background and red borders: o Central floral embroidery representing an open rose with foliage, a frequent Marian symbol (mystical rosebush, purity, divine love). o White damask silk, embroidered gold braid, crimson red liningo Finished with gold fringes. 2. Stole with white ground and gold / yellow borders: o Central stylized motif of a

Dealer

Le sancturaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

central stylized rose with four pink leaves. o Embroidery in gold thread and polychrome silk. o White silk damask and similar finishes, with gold thread fringes. Approximate dimensions Length:
approx. 120-130 cm Width at ends: 15 cm Condition Very good condition overall considering age - clean fabric, intact embroidery, complete fringes. Some discreet signs of use may occur, but do not affect the aesthetic or historical value. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or to request additional photos of the items offered for sale.