Pair Of Louis XVI Period Lyonnais Armchairs

2 700 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Walnut

Description

Pair of large Louis XVI armchairs in blond walnut wood, resting on 4 tapered, fluted and rudenté legs. The molded belts connect to the front legs with pretty fleurettes and to the back with pointed motifs. The armrest consoles take up the fluting and rudentures of the legs as well as the molding of the belts and pleasantly connect to the uprights of the backrest. The backrest, in cabriolet and trapezoidal shape, ends with small feather dusters. Work from Lyon, Louis XVI period, circa 1785/90 attributable to François Lapierre. Width: 58 cm. Depth: 55 cm. Height: 90 cm. Very good condition of woodwork; some stains on the fabric. François Lapierre (1753-1823), received master in 1784, practiced in Lyon. He produced purely Louis XVI and sometimes Transitional but always
