Description

Early 20th Century French Louis XVI Style Painted Side TableA very decorative early 20th century French Louis XVI style painted side table or night table. This timeless side table features three drawers with cast ring plate handles, offering both functionality and elegance, while standing gracefully on slender legs, evoking the essence of Louis XVI style. White shaped marble top framed by an ornate brass railing gallery. With its good small size and elegant proportions, this table serves as an ideal center piece for any refined interior, whether as a work table or an occasional piece.
