Description

This sophisticated ring embodies vintage charm with a modern, feminine look. Crafted in 18k yellow gold, it showcases a dazzling cushion-cut citrine of approximately 5.6 carats, prized for its warm golden hue and luminous clarity. The center stone is delicately accented with a subtle pavé setting of brilliant-cut diamonds, totaling approximately 0.22 carats, adding a touch of refined sparkle. The soft, rounded lines of the gold setting offer both softness and structure, creating a balanced and graceful silhouette. Ideal for those who appreciate timeless design with a pop of color, this piece stands out for its bold elegance. Main Stone: Cushion-cut citrine - approximately 5.6 carats Diamonds: Brilliant-cut - approximately 0.22 carats Metal: 18K (750/1000) Yellow Gold Gold Weight:
