Description

Introducing this fantastic mid-19th century Italian antique wardrobe, dating back to the Louis Philippe period. A wardrobe with a timeless antique charm! Made of solid poplar wood in a beautiful light shade that is easy to match with any furniture color. Featuring a very linear structure, without excessive ornamentation, a turned decoration on the front creates a frame on the sides and softens its linearity. The doors and sides are characterized by geometric panels. Equipped with two doors and a practical drawer in the lower part for additional storage options. Internally it has a practical and curious subdivision: one side with a coat hanger, the other with two shelves, while a long shelf is present at the top. Note that the interior can be modified according to your needs by adding shelves, the request must be made before ordering. A curiosity: originally the shelf positioned at the top was called a hat rack because it was intended to store hats. The wardrobe will be shipped disassembled, assembly is not included in the delivery, but we can provide a support video. Please note that this is a wardrobe whose assembly is very simple because it is divided in half into two individual bodies. This wardrobe tells a part of the history of Italian furniture, being a type of wardrobe very popular in the 19th century among families in northern Italy. Although in our opinion it is perfect for furnishing a country or mountain home, its antique charm can also give warmth to a modern urban environment. In terms of conservation, the wardrobe is in good general condition with minimal signs of wear compatible with its age. Please note that you will receive a very large package that will be left packed at street level. We can ship worldwide, contact us for a personalized quote. In conclusion, do not hesitate to include this splendid antique Italian wardrobe in your decor, it will become a historical piece admired by all your guests.
