Description

Napoleon III period bracelet decorated in its center with a large rosette made of coral buttons, a characteristic cut shape in this material, arranged in a dome. The button shape makes it possible to create a large diameter rosette without a marked height effect. Under this central motif is hidden the 750/°° rose gold (18 KT, owl hallmark) ratchet clasp of the bracelet, also made up of three rows of slightly button-shaped pearls also of good diameter. As a result, the clasp is invisible when worn. The color of the coral is a soft and delicate orange, very much in keeping with the world of antique jewelry. The whole forms a bracelet that only shows coral, with a very beautiful overall volume. Total length of the bracelet: 19 cm (possible modification by rethreading) Gross weight: 49.68 g Condition:
