

Three Silver-plated Metal Bottle Covers, éditions Lancel, Paris, France, Circa 1970

1 000 EUR

Signature : Maison Lancel
Period : 20th century
Condition : Parfait état
Material : Silver metal
Width : 13.5 cm
Height : 28 cm

Description

Three folded silver metal bottle covers. A pair and a smaller one. They bear the Lancel hallmark and « silver ». Height of the pair: 28 cm (11 inches) Width of the pair: 13,5 cm (5.3 inches) Height of the smaller one: 22,5 cm (8.9 inches) Width of the smaller one: 11 cm (4.3 inches) Story Lancel is a French leather goods and luxury goods company founded in Paris in 1876 by Angèle and Alphonse Lancel, then developed by their son Albert. The company remained in the hands of the founding family until 1997, when it was bought by the Richemont group. Then, on 1 June 2018, Lancel was acquired by the Italian group Piquadro. In the early days, Lancel sold pipes and accessories for smokers. The brand then diversified into decorative items and gifts. It commissioned its craftsmen to make a variety of

Dealer

Galerie Canavèse

Decorative Arts of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth Centuries

Tel : 09 50 75 60 25

Mobile : 06 08 41 29 80

Fax : 01 42 60 50 26

21 rue des Saints Pères

Paris 75006

objects, including clocks, goldsmiths' and silversmiths' wares, spectacles, barometers, scissors, lamps and table accessories. Lancel holds several patents, including the automatic lighter, the Aviona trunk and the Bambino portable radio. To find out more, please click on this Wikipedia link