Description

Elegant oval-shaped table surtout in finely chiseled gilt bronze, resting on six tapered legs decorated with classical motifs. The top is in blackened wood surmounted by a mirror background, highlighting the details of the gallery. The openwork gallery is richly worked with latticework, punctuated by applied motifs in relief representing masks and neoclassical attributes. A French work from the end of the 19th century, refined and decorative, ideal to enhance a table or as a coffee table.
