Description

Pair of bedside tables in solid fir wood and walnut veneer. The bedside tables are decorated with geometric inlays in fruit wood and walnut, present on the top and sides, which give a touch of greater elegance. They are equipped with a drawer and a door with a mirrored opening, ideal for storing small objects, and are enriched by an original and contemporary lock. These bedside tables, of great elegance and taste, are able to furnish with class and refinement. Tuscan manufacture of the neoclassical period, around the second half of the 18th century.
