on the left, we can recognize a professional and an upper body, while the figure on the right also has anatomical features. With this reinforcement, we can clearly recognize a human figure in the middle. The people on the right are clearly a couple, and the person on the left has turned away from them. Encouraged by these clues, our imagination begins to form a network of relationships between the three figures. However, we are unable to resolve it, which activates our imagination even more.

About the artist

Detlef
