Description

Pair of pastel seascapes depicting the Breton coasts, signed Eugène Senamaux on the lower right for one and on the lower left for the second. This artist from Limousin regularly depicted the Breton coasts during her travels, and here she creates a very luminous representation animated by birds. These pastels are kept in carved and gilded wooden frames, giving them a very chic look. Good condition, beautiful patina of the gilding. Delivery costs for mainland France: EUR20, for other destinations, please contact us for a precise delivery quote.
