Description

This Empire perioddressing table in Cuban mahogany is a rare and refined object. The mirror tilts to allow shaving or styling. The drawer intended to hold scissors and razors has recently been covered with red felt that matches the elegance of this piece of furniture. It is very stable partly thanks to its four legs, but also thanks to the system of heavy steel bars hidden inside the trunk, which is beautifully gadrooned. The precious wood from which it is made and the balance of its construction give it elegance and functionality, which will allow it to easily find its place in your interior. The top of the shelf is 97 cm, the top of the mirror 134 cm The delivery and installation of this object will be done by us
