Description

Pair of Italian lamps Murano blown glass from the 1980's and brass. The lamp was assembled at a later date. Each lamp is composed of two identical spheres of smoked gold Murano glass, mouth-blown in a structuring mold, revealing a deep and regular geometric relief. The two elements are separated by a dark Murano glass disc, which highlights the architecture of the whole. The base and structure are in gilded brass. New electrical assembly.
