

Charlotte Cordet - Bulletin Of The National Convention - French Revolution

500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

Charlotte CORDAY [Marie Anne Charlotte de Corday d'Armont] (1768 - 1793), personality of the French Revolution, known for having assassinated Jean-Paul Marat on July 13, 1793, guillotined on July 17 of the same year. Bulletin of the National Convention, Paris July 16, 1793. 1 folio page. Light foxing Rare and moving testimony of the trial of Charlotte Corday, following the assassination of Jean-Paul Marat on July 13, 1793, reported in the bulletin of the session of Tuesday July 16, 1793, the second year of the French Republic

Dealer

MANUSCRIPTA

Autographs - drawings - Photos

Mobile : 0622666814

74b rue denfert rochereau

Lyon 69004