Description

Charming bedside lamp with Daum tulip and art nouveau base in gilt bronze by Leo Laporte.
Pretty 1900 lamp with this small and rare Daum tulip acid-etched, giving this frosted effect like rain sliding on the glass. It is scalloped and pulled with hot pliers with this colocynth shape with 6 nipples. It is associated with a pretty gilt bronze base decorated with poppies, foliage and roses. This base is double stamped and numbered "Laporte" and number "41". Beautiful fineness of chiseling. Note that this base is doubly adjustable at the base and at the claw. Bakelite plug and button. Perfect condition for the tulip and the base, it works. 33 cm high, signed tulip, "rain" model clearly referenced. Very pretty art nouveau bedside lamp. Beautiful double signatures.
