Description

Superb silver-gilt tea service dating from the late 19th century. The service is housed in a blackened wooden case inlaid with brass threads and a floral motif. The interior is lined with light blue fabric. The key is unfortunately missing. The service consists of fifteen silver-gilt pieces: twelve spoons decorated with an interlacing frieze and a semi-circular pattern. A sugar tong ending in lion paws and featuring the same decoration as the spoons. A shell-shaped spoon for pouring tea into the teapot. A tea strainer. Each piece is hallmarked: Minerva, 2nd grade for 800/00 silver since 1838. Goldsmith's hallmark: PQ with an antique oar for Pierre Queillé. The Queillé family is a prominent goldsmith family, and this hallmark was used by Eugène François Queillé, active from 1847 to 1880, and his son Elvire,
