Description

Superb glass tray or centerpiece mounted in a wide solid silver frame. The tray is oval and fretted. The base is made of glass. The solid silver rim is decorated with a pearl frieze, a channel motif, and a molded inner border that allows the base to be held in place with screws. The tray rests on four small oval feet decorated with a pearl frieze. Twelve screws hold the glass base in place. Both silver parts are hallmarked with the Minerva 1st standard from before 1973 for 950/°° silver. I was unable to find a silversmith's mark. A superb tray, whose combination of glass and silver gives it great elegance. 31 x 28 cm 944 grams gross weight Very good condition. Minor scratches from use.
