is the second largest city in Iran located in the Northeast for just over three million inhabitants. This important city is nicknamed "the city of a thousand faces". This carpet is in perfect condition, and has a decoration of three rosettes like suns placed on the field. All over the field appear fine wavy and flowery volutes, and large bouquets, the colors tending towards gold, ivory, midnight blue are very fresh. Note the quality of the border formed of large palms, quite narrow, alternating flowers and three braids decorated with a floral decoration. The velvet is in superb condition, the fringes very good as well as the edges. This carpet has been professionally cleaned in an ecological way. Dimensions:

Width: 108 cm (42") x Length: 218 cm (85") For a thickness of 1.5 cm, very comfortable carpet ##

Mashhad is a city located in the northeast of Iran, known for being a famous place of religious pilgrimage. Its carpet museum, located in the Within the mausoleum, many extremely rare pieces are exhibited. It is centered around the mausoleum of Imam Reza, whose golden domes and minarets light up at night. The circular complex also includes the tomb of the Lebanese scholar Sheikh Bahai, as well as the Goharshad Mosque, dating from the 15th century. It is adorned with a mosaic facade and a turquoise dome.
