Description

A very rare piece, a Karabag kilim from Armenia in the Caucasus. Woven wool on wool in the traditional way. The weaving is a true marvel, fine and refined. The piece is supple and light. The central field is composed of a succession of ram horn patterns, a symbol of power. The plant shades around different indigo blues form a kind of perfectly mastered harmony. It is a real painting to be placed on the floor or hung on the wall. The piece is dated 1911 In perfect condition
