

Crown Of The Virgin, Silver, Enamel, France 19th Century

2 685 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 17 cm

Description

Virgin's crown in cast, chased and enameled silver. The base is slightly oval with a heavily openwork rim; in the center, a blue enameled band decorated with stylized acanthus foliage and turquoise cabochons. The animated framework is formed of six arcades whose lower parts are represented in the form of stylized purple enameled palmettes, ending with fleur-de-lis, alternating with petals with the same palmette decoration, but slightly smaller, white enameled and decorated with green and red viroterie cabochons. Six winged angel heads, executed in high relief and chased, complete the decoration. The upper parts with black enameled channels are connected and form a beaded pedestal, decorated with faceted amethyst-colored cabochons, surmounted by a starry sky blue enameled

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600

cruciform globe, with a glorious cross chiseled and garnished mainly with rose-cut diamonds. French work of the 19th century. 950/1000 silver, Minerva hallmark. Work attributed to the master silversmith Demarquet et frères. Max dimensions: Length: 13.8 cm Width: 13.1 cm Height: 17 cm Support: 10.2 cm x 9.1 cm Crown weight: 804 g Condition: thick silver structure up to 5 mm thick, in very good condition. Note: some enamel chips and some losses on the cabochons. Flat base without deformations. Two attachment holes. No traces of restoration.