Description

Very beautiful oil on cardboard representing the Creuse valley towards Crozant signed lower right M.Papillon, marked on the back "N°157 The valley of the painters in Crozant. Size of the painting alone 24x33cm and 30.5x40 cm including frame. It is therefore a beautiful post-impressionist composition around 1930/1950 representing the Creuse valley, made largely with a knife in a rich paste and a very subtle palette in pastel tones, signed M.Papillon... So, could it be Edith Papillon who was called Mme Meslier, or M for Meslier??? Or perhaps a work by her father who was also a painter??? I cannot say for sure, having never had a work by Edith Papillon, an artist referenced in the Crozant school; she was even born in Crozant itself. She will spend time at the École des Arts Déco in Paris, then exhibit at
