Description

Portrait of a woman in an expressionist style. This is a monotype, a printing process without engraving that produces a unique print. It consists of painting with typographic ink, oil paint, or gouache, on a non-porous support such as glass, metal, or plexiglass. It is therefore a unique print, between a drawing and a print. Signed with a dedication at the bottom right, transcribed on the back. Circa 1930/1940 Framed
