Description

This richly carved walnut cabinet is a remarkable example of 19th-century French craftsmanship in Renaissance Revival style. Created around 1860 and signed by V. Aimone, the piece features deeply sculpted panels with classical figures, floral motifs, and grotesques, framed by ornate pilasters and architectural moulding. Resting on lion-foot supports and flanked by carved caryatids, it exudes grandeur and historical flair. The cabinet measures 165 cm in width, 50 cm in depth, and 170 cm in height. A rare signed piece of museum quality--perfect for collectors of antique furniture and decorative arts.

Signature: V. Aimone
