

---

Antonibon Manufactory, Bassano, 18th Century. Three Plates With "bull's Eye" Decoration

400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 24

Description

Round plates with slightly concave brim with raised rim, smooth on the back without a support ring, shaped on the lathe. Monochrome "Delft style" decoration in "saffron" blue, traditionally called "bull's eye", characterized by a pair of flowers supported and surrounded by leaves, petals and stems. Along the brim, a band decorated with flowers and twigs with leaves arranged in a comb. Very bright enamel with a high stannic content, milky white. Diameter 24 cm (slight chipping present)

Dealer

La Polvere e i Ricordi

Antique shop

Tel : +390683909734

Mobile : 3385454421

Piazza Vescovio 6a

Roma 00199