Description

Chaumont-sur-Loire Castle, Loir et Cher, France
Finely watercolored lithograph with gum arabic highlights. Lithographed by Victor Petit (1817-1871) Printed by Godard in Paris 19th century around 1860 39.7 x 54.8 cm sheet 24.5 x 33 cm
The château was acquired by Catherine de Medici in 1550.[4] There she entertained numerous astrologers, among them Nostradamus. When her husband, Henry II, died accidentally in a joust in 1559, she forced his mistress, Diane de Poitiers, to accept the Château de Chaumont in exchange for the Château de Chenonceau which Henry had formerly given to Diane de Poitiers.[5] Diane de Poitiers only lived at Chaumont for a short while.
