Description

Gouache on cardboard, framed, under glass, representing a landscape, located on the back: harvest near Polignac. (in Haute-Loire) The style is close to abstraction, the artist has refined the forms creating colored spaces of great chromatic strength Signed lower right: A Jaclet Dated lower right: 1955 Biography: Andrée JACLET was born in Mulhouse in 1906. Wife of the engraver André JACQUEMIN: André Jacquemin was 29 years old when he met the woman who would become his wife. Like him, Andrée Poncelet was an artist, a student at the School of Decorative Arts and sister of the painter Maurice-Georges Poncelet. Married in 1934, three children were born from their union. Mother and wife, Andrée never stopped painting, driven all her life by a great creative force. By combining her name with that of her husband, she became Andrée JACLET and signed, with this pseudonym, a work marked by a powerful sense of color, expressed in flamboyant bouquets and luminous landscapes.

Around 1969, Andrée Jaclet "broke out of her shell" and shifted to abstraction. Sometimes soft and round, sometimes abrupt and sharp, his highly structured compositions all possess the same chromatic strength.
