Description

Swan, table base for glass. Marble and bronze.
20th century. Table base in the shape of a swan taking flight from a body of water, made of bronze and placed on an oval base of dark marble. The figure is more reminiscent, in some details, of 19th-century examples found, for example, in clocks from the French Empire period, than of more common works from the 20th century. - Dimensions: 97x110x71 cm
