

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Filigree Silver Reliquary - Relic Of Saint Felix Of Cantalice - 18th/19th Century

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Width : 5 cm

Height : 6 cm

Description

Filigree Silver Reliquary - Relic of Saint Felix of Cantalice - 18th/19th Century
Superb oval Catholic reliquary, with a finely chased and filigree silver mount, in the late Baroque style. It houses a relic of Saint Felix of Cantalice, a 16th-century Capuchin friar canonized in 1712, renowned for his piety and miracles

Description
The relic is carefully preserved behind glass, on a red textile background edged with gold thread. A handwritten label authenticates the relic with the visible inscription: "S. Felicis Capuc." (Sancti Felicis Capucini). The reverse is decorated with embossed paper adorned with a gilt floral motif, typical of reliquaries of this period.

Dimensions:

Height with bail 6 cm - Width 5 cm

Condition:

Excellent condition - relic and original label intact

The photos are an integral part of the

Dealer

Le sancturaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

description of the objects and complete their presentation. They allow you to appreciate its condition and characteristics. Please examine them carefully before any commitment. In accordance with canon law (can. 1190 §1), this sale concerns only the reliquary as an object of sacred art. The relics it contains are not the object of the transaction, but are included free of charge for their historical and cultural value. Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.