

Bronze Sculpture "bacchantes And Dancing Putti" After Clodion

7 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 35

Height : 71

Depth : 26

Description

Large bronze group with brown patina after Claude Michel, known as Clodion (1738-1814), representing two dancing bacchantes surrounded by three playful putti. The bacchantes are crowned with vine leaves and draped in the antique style. One of them plays the flute while the other carries on her shoulders a putto playing the tambourine... Read more Condition report: In good overall condition, with small chips and scratches on the marble base. LEARN MORE

Dealer

Galerie Atena

Decorative Arts and Furniture

Tel : 01 39 14 35 36

Mobile : 06 17 08 51 58

Showroom à Montesson 78360 / Galerie sur RDV au 8 rue de Miromesnil à Paris

Paris 75008