Description

Good Quality 20th Century Black Leather Three Seater Chesterfield SofaA late 20th-century, three-seater, black color leather Chesterfield sofa with three loose cushions. It features a fully buttoned scroll back and armrests, raised on bun feet. The original black leather hide has been cleaned and polished, providing a lovely, soft, and sumptuous feel to the quality leather. This is a fine example of a good quality Chesterfield with a good patina and comfortable design. The seat height of the sofa is 47cm. Circa 1980.
