Description
-------------

Rare and beautiful large pair of dark patinated bronze torches, like the discoveries of the Antiquities in the Region of Rome Pompeii or Herculaneum. These magnificent pieces and majestic candelabra with falling chains surmounted by a heron standing on a turtle, with five branches are a curiosity in the series of faithful reproductions of Roman Antiquities. With a beautiful momentum, the shaft decorated with water leaves in bamboo shoots, finished in five branches and a remarkable chiseling. The "neo-classical" spirit of this beginning of the 19th century is elegant and refined at the same time. A pride on a reception table for these two very beautiful pieces of strong presence and decorative. The quality and the spirit of the Antique respected and this beautiful pair opposite
