Description

Large clear crystal bowl Lalique model
Champs-ÉlyséesThe sumptuous avenues of plane trees that run along "the most beautiful Avenue in the World" inspired the design of the finely ribbed crystal leaves of this Champs-Élysées bowl created in 1951 by Marc Lalique. Through them, the artist has captured a little of the soul of Paris. Very good condition, rubbing scratches under the baseLength: 46cm Height: 19cm
