Description

Baccarat 18th century mustard pot. The Medici-inspired shape goes perfectly with the fixed flower plate. This corolla shape is repeated in the neck of the top of the container. The retracting diamond point decoration enhances the lid (h 6 cm). It highlights the original ensemble of this shaped piece. The finger grip button is gadrooned and the star-shaped underside attests to its manufacture. The thickness, the imperfect symmetry and the defects of the glass justify its era. Rare piece! Delivery possible not included in the price.
