PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Venetian Amethyst Blown Glass Chandelier Early 1900s

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : cm. 40

Height : cm. 94.5

Description

Venetian Amethyst Blown Glass Chandelier Early 1900s, Art Deco Murano glass pendant with four violet-pink lights Venini style.This Venetian amethyst-coloured blown glass chandelier dates from the early 1900s and is an example of Venetian craftsmanship. Its elegant amethyst hue lends a touch of sophistication and style to any room in which it is placed.The chandelier dates back to around the 1930s and has a very original design. It is a basket with a circular shape, the lower bowl terminating in a drop pendant is adorned with four curved arms terminating in upward-facing lights and is connected to the upper bowl by chains of blown, oval and circular glass beads, intricate handcrafted details that make it a unique and precious piece.It is a decorative element of great

Dealer

Antiquités Ghilli

Lighting, Paintings, Furniture, Sculptures

Tel : +39 0270635993

Mobile : +39 339 4379271

Fax : +39 02 84540237

Via A. M. Ampere 55

Milano 20131

artistic and historical value, bearing witness to the skill and tradition of Venetian master glassmakers.It works with four E14 lights with the existing electrical system.