Description

Pair of baroque sconces in carved, stuccoed, gilded and silvered wood. In the style of Andrea Brustolon (1662-1732), Italian Venetian Baroque sculptor. These sconces composed of interlacing and sculpted volutes are impressive for their size and visual effect. Some old repairs. Their electrification works perfectly. They will give an air of an Italian palace to your interior with their 12 lights in total. Late 19th century, early 20th century
