Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Description

19th century Viennese vase in finely enameled metal, with polychrome decoration of gallant and pastoral scenes, in the Rococo style. The flared silhouette, with a trilobed rim, is adorned with decorative friezes and elegant figures evolving in bucolic landscapes. The base rests on a richly worked gilt bronze mount, decorated with three winged cherubs in the round, holding floral attributes, in a delicately Baroque setting. Each side of the domed base is decorated with enameled medallions, continuing the romantic narrative theme. Origin: Austria, Vienna Height: 15.5 cm
