

Qajar Portrait Pendant In 18k Gold, Enamel Portrait, Shah Qajar, Ahmad Shah Qajar

520 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Qajar enamel portrait pendant in 18 karat gold.
Pendant composed of two double-sided polychrome enamel portraits, set in a gold mount.
On one side, the portrait of a man wearing a black headdress called a kolah namadi, probably the last Qajar Shah, Ahmad Shah Qajar (1898 - 1930). On the other, a long-haired man in profile with a red and gold headdress, unidentified.
Persian pendant from the end of the 19th century, Qajar art.
Owl hallmark
Height (including bail): 3 cm - Width: 1.5 cm - Thickness: 0.4 cm
Condition: small missing parts
Weight: 5.56 gr
*The antique gold chain is not sold with the jewel*

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004