Description

Contemporary ring representing a flower of beautiful volume, in 750/°° white gold (18 KT, owl hallmark), adorned in its center with a superb Tahitian cultured pearl of beautiful size, called "black pearl", with subtle iridescence of colors... Endowed with a beautiful surface, this pearl is very shiny, and captures by mirror effect what surrounds it (therefore, in the photos, the different marks and shadows on the pearl are only reflections...). It is surrounded by a corolla of petals entirely paved with brilliant-cut diamonds in a beautiful contrast of materials. An ornate and airy basket acts as the chalice of the flower. The body of the ring is invisible and ergonomic to wear. Pearl diameter: 1.27 cm Total weight of diamonds estimated at 1.50 carat Gross weight: 14.36 g Finger size: 54- can be modified to your
