Description

Louis XVI style console table in gilded wood. Topped with a beige veined marble top, this rectangular console table with rounded corners features a belt decorated with waves, ribbons, bows, and foliage. It rests on four tapered legs with rudenté fluting with asparagus tips. Its legs are joined by a central medallion spacer, the whole receiving a richly carved decoration. Good condition, Beautiful patina of the gilding showing some wear and retouching. Small chip in the marble on the back of the side visible in the detail photo.
