Description

Charming patinated bronze statuette representing two putti (cherubs) in full play, richly detailed: floral crowns, foliage and tender expressions finely chiseled. The whole rests on a veined red marble base, giving it stability and elegance. This refined decorative piece evokes the spirit of the Belle Époque or the neoclassical style. It will find its place perfectly in a display case, on a shelf or on a desk. Can also be used as an elegant paperweight. Dimensions: approximately 11 cm x 9.5 cm. Very good condition, beautiful original patina, slight traces of time compatible with its age. Careful shipping possible in France and internationally.
