Description
-------------

Large modern chandelier in gilded bronze with 6 lighting points. The design is the result of a collaboration between the artist Felix Agostini (1910-1980) and Maison Arlus. The frame of this chandelier is inspired by trees and branches and has been made with a brutalist finish, provoking a delicate sense of movement. Naturalistic elements regularly feature Agostini's work. The six points are set off by the original pressed glass shades. Ca. 1960
