Description

France / 1930 / mirror / wood / Art Deco

Rare French Art Deco mirror featuring a carved wooden frame in weathered green with patinated silver colored carved relief of an elegant naked woman eating grapes. The frame is holding 4 mirror plates with a flower in the middle. The original mirror plates have some apparent oxidation bringing character to the piece.

This unusual design will bring a cultivated and worldly aesthetic to nearly any room across a range of decorating tastes. Measuring a generous size, it not only serves as a functional mirror but also as a striking focal point that enhances your space. Whether hung in a hallway, living room, or bedroom, this mirror reflects your unique style
