

Pair Of Meissen Porcelain Figurines, Circa 1755, Representing A Fisherwoman And A Porter

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A Pair of Meissen Porcelain Figurines, circa 1755, depicting a fishergirl and a porter, standing on naturalistic bases, Probably modelled by J.J. Kändler or P. Reinicke. Heights: 10.5 and 11 cm. Provenance: private collection, The Netherlands. Faintly marked with crossed swords in underglaze blue. A few very small chips but apart from that overall in good condition.

Dealer

Red Rose Fine Art

Old Master paintings, drawings and prints, objets d'art and porcelain

Tel : 0031629514501

Gouda 2801P